OASIS COLLEGE CONNECTION Tips and Resources for Getting College-Ready:

An Interview with Lee Gray of Oasis College Connection

By Michael Peacock

For most upcoming college freshman, the time is here! Summer is gone and anyone who intends to begin college in fall 2015 is either already there or will be soon. There are no more deadlines to meet, no more boxes to check, and there's nothing more to do because, ready or not, their college career has begun! Hopefully, all of their earnest preparation and planning has them poised for college success! ... read more ...

Getting into college is a job in itself

By, Phoebe Venable, For The Tennessean

Most Middle Tennessee students are headed back to school in less than three weeks. Rising juniors and seniors with an interest in college, take special note. Time flies and you've got a lot to do to get into college. There's a lot riding on your bachelor's degree, including the potential to make 65 percent a year more than those with only a high school diploma (those with a bachelor's, master's, professional or doctoral degree make 112 percent more on average, according to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics). ...
